Saint Petersburg provides great opportunities for sightseeing. The city center is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. The majestic appearance of St. Petersburg is achieved through a variety of architectural details including long, straight boulevards, vast spaces, gardens and parks, decorative wrought-iron fences, monuments and decorative sculptures. The Neva River itself, together with its many canals and their granite embankments and bridges gives the city a unique and striking ambience and it is often referred to as "Venice of the North".
